

Foundation for the Education of Young Women

Lubbock ISD School for Young Women Leaders Principal's Report by Dr. Kim Perry May 2008

Dr. Kim Perry, Principal and new faculty held a student and family celebration luncheon at Estacado High School. Over 100 new students and their families attended this function to meet the teachers, meet other students, create a scrapbook page with personal pictures, tour our campus and eat lunch together. Students and parents expressed excitement about the opportunities YWL will offer.

LISD School for Young Women Leaders
“First” group photo (about 100 out of 135 students present)